

Wednesday, August 15, 2007

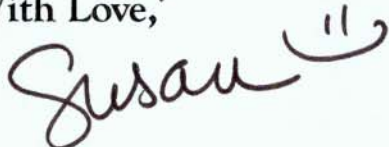

Dear Candice,

There is so much I could write! You are like my sister — I have known you for over 30 years! I have seen you accomplish incredible things and become a remarkable person. I have watched you sacrifice and try so hard to get pregnant. I have felt your deep desire for becoming a mom. I have observed you with my own children and witnessed your kindness, your care and concern, and your ability to play with kids and make them feel special.

I believe, without a single doubt, that you will make an amazing mom! You are a strong woman that has overcome many of life's hurdles with amazing optimism and grace. You will no doubt convey this same positive, never-give-up attitude to your children. You have so many talents! You will be able to teach your kids so many fun and interesting things! And, the most important reason in my mind is that you are unselfish and will give everything you have within yourself to your children.

You are an amazing person and amazing friend! I know you will put those same amazing attributes to work as a mother!

With Love,

Susan ☺

Susan

Mother of 3

Spring Hill, TN